Business Report (From April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015)

1. Matters Concerning Current State of Group Operations

(1) Business Conditions and Results

During this fiscal year, the Japanese economy continued to have an uncertain economic outlook due to such factors as the consumption tax hike and the devaluation of the yen and crude-oil prices. Nevertheless, against a backdrop of economic measures and monetary easing policies by the government and the Bank of Japan, signs of economic recovery could be observed such as improvements in corporate earnings and the employment situation.

Although we are entering a new phase in the energy environment, with factors such as the frameworks for electricity and gas system reforms generally taking shape and reviews into the energy mix now in full swing, the trends related to energy supply in the Tokyo Metropolitan Area continue to indicate a state of flux and uncertainty.

Under such economic circumstances and business environment, the Tokyo Gas Group proceeded with a group-wide initiative of 'Enhancing the LNG Value Chain.'

As a result, the sales volume of gas increased from the previous year due to an increase in demand for electric power generation. Moreover, net sales of the City Gas Sales segment grew as a result of an increase in gas unit prices due to raw material cost adjustment associated with the effect of yen depreciation and net sales of the Other Energies segment grew due to an increase in electric power sales. As a result, consolidated net sales rose by 8.5% year on year to $\frac{12}{292},548$ million.

In terms of operating expenses, despite further promotion of business efficiency and a doubling of efforts to restrict expenses as much as possible, there was an increase in gas raw material costs associated with the increase in the sales volume of gas and the effect of yen depreciation, and there was also an increase in expenses at the Other Energy segment due to the increase in electric power sales. As a result, operating expenses rose by 9.0% year on year to $\frac{12}{2},120,794$ million.

As a result of the above, operating income grew by 3.4% year on year to $171,753 million, and ordinary income rose by 5.4% year on year to $168,169 million. As a result of the recording of gain on sales of non-current assets of $6,134 million and gain on sales of investment securities of $5,062 million under extraordinary income, the recording of impairment loss on overseas upstream projects of $30,987 million, loss on reduction of non-current assets of $505 million, and loss on devaluation of investment securities of $622 million under extraordinary losses, and the recording of income taxes, net income decreased by 11.6\% year on year to $95,828 million.

We would like to report the review of results by operating segment, as follows.

1) City Gas Sales

Total customer numbers rose by 152 thousand during this fiscal year, to 11,263 thousand as of March 31, 2015. Gas sales volume increased by 5.5% year on year to 15,540,518 thousand cubic meters.

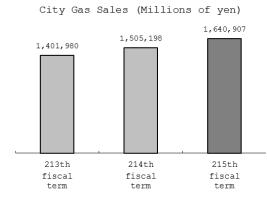

Of this aggregate volume, the volume of household-bound gas sold increased by 0.9% year on year to 3,482,030 thousand cubic meters, due mainly to an increase in the number of customers. The volume of business-bound gas sold (for commercial, public and medical uses) was down 3.3% year on year to 2,749,665 thousand cubic meters, with a decline in air-heating/cooling demand due to cooler temperature in the first half of the fiscal year and warmer temperature in the second half of the fiscal year, compared with the previous fiscal year. The volume of industry-bound gas sold increased by 12.5% year on year to 7,234,627 thousand cubic meters. This was due to an increase in demand for power generation, despite decreases in operations at some existing facilities. The Group's wholesale supplies to other gas suppliers rose by 3.3% year on year to 2,074,196 thousand cubic meters mainly due to higher wholesale customer demand.

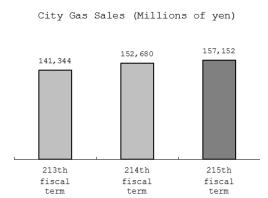

Net sales of the City Gas Sales segment increased by 9.0% year on year to $1,640,907 million as a result of an increase in sales unit price due to gas rate adjustments as well as an increase in the gas sales volume.

Segment income increased by 2.9% year on year to $157,152 million.

(4) Prospective Challenges

The Tokyo Gas Group formulated Challenge 2020 Vision in November 2011, about half a year after the Great East Japan Earthquake to serve as a vision for the Tokyo Gas Group's growth and development toward the future and to clarify the measures to bring this vision to reality. Following this vision, we will continue to respond to the needs of our customers, our society and our times. While contributing to realizing 'a prosperous, fulfilling way of life,' 'competitive domestic industries' and 'an environment-friendly society where people can live in peace of mind,' we will also strive to attain sustained growth of the Tokyo Gas Group by recognizing its corporate social responsibility and practicing transparent and fair management while striving for coexistence with the community.

The Challenge 2020 Vision comprises the following stages: Hop (FY2012-2014), Step (FY2015-2017), and Jump (FY2018-2020). During the three years of the Hop term, we made steady progress and achieved the first step, vigorously proceeding with various initiatives in each of the fields of raw materials procurement, infrastructure establishment, and energy solutions.

We now enter the Step term from this fiscal year. The three important measures for these three years, which are set forth below, were determined in October last year. Looking forward, the Tokyo Gas Group will boldly and expeditiously take on the challenge of these issues by combining the Group's comprehensive capabilities.

<Evolve the Comprehensive Energy Business>

In the field of raw materials procurement, we will aim to lower the price of raw materials through such methods as achieving greater diversity in suppliers, price indices and destinations, flexibly forming alliances with players in Japan and overseas for joint procurement, optimization and sales of LNG, and procuring LNG derived from shale gas, whose prices are indexed to U.S. natural gas market prices.

In the field of production and supply, we will improve reliability of our supply infrastructure overall while meeting the growing demand for natural gas accompanying the construction of the Hitachi LNG Terminal LNG Storage Tank No. 2 and the Ibaraki Line. Moreover, we aim to construct a safe and stable supply system through such initiatives as accelerating measures for aged gas pipes and introducing a new remote system for a range of functions from confirming the soundness of gas pipes when an earthquake strikes to resuming supply.

In the field of energy solutions, while delivering electricity to residential and commercial customers against the backdrop of full deregulation of the electricity market, we aim to construct an even more competitive power source portfolio. We will also create added value through partnerships with various industries including housing construction and housing equipment, and information and communications. Furthermore, while proposing optimal energy solutions combining gas and electricity, we aim to promote the creation of smart energy solutions that utilize decentralized power sources such as ENE-FARM and cogeneration systems.

<Accelerate Global Business Development>

We aim to further expand our business by diversifying the formats in how we participate in upstream businesses such as acquisition of gas field interests in the United States, and participation in small and medium-scale LNG projects. Furthermore, we will utilize the technology and knowhow of the Tokyo Gas Group's Comprehensive Energy Business in South East Asia and North America while contributing to building local energy infrastructure and energy solutions. In addition, we will take on the challenge of developing the value chain in local areas through forming alliances with local energy companies.

<Construct a New Group Formation>

We will foster and strengthen businesses by centralizing the management resources made up of human resources, technologies and knowhow dispersing within the group. We will also expand the size and scope of businesses in new business fields, such as by forming external alliances to supplement our capabilities.

In addition we will aim to reinforce the Tokyo Gas Group's strength through centralization of management resources by adjusting the business direction of functions that are difficult to develop within the Group and functions that can be expected to grow through external alliances.

In order to accelerate global business development, we will expand overseas bases by newly establishing and further strengthening overseas bases as well as expanding personnel.

We will also examine and implement the optimum management systems for the new group formation that can effectively deliver the greatest efficiency and comprehensive capability and the optimal personnel systems under which each employee can enthusiastically do his or her work. At the very root of all efforts for the above measures will be public security. Looking forward, we will strengthen public security to thoroughly ensure the peace-of-mind and safety of customers so that we earn even stronger trust from society.

In addition, the Board of Directors resolved, at its meeting held on April 28, 2015, pursuant to the 'Policy on Determination of Dividends from Surplus and Others' (for details, please refer to '7. Policy on Determination of Dividends from Surplus and Others' described later in this document), to set the ceiling on acquisition of treasury shares for FY2015 at \pm 34,000 million (or 50 million shares) and set the acquisition period from April 30, 2015 to March 31, 2016.

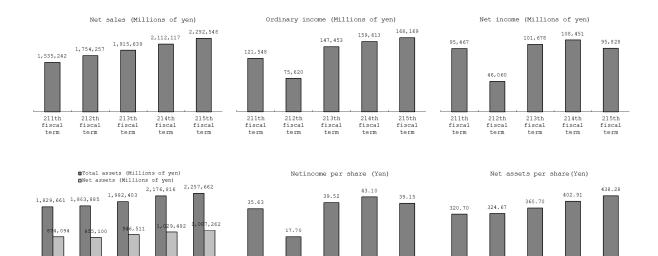

The Group will continue working to increase its corporate value and shareholder value and meet the expectations of both shareholders and customers. Toward that end, we will greatly appreciate your ongoing understanding and support.

7. Policy on Determination of Dividends from Surplus and Others

Based on "Challenge 2020 Vision" formulated by the Company, the Board of Directors resolved, at its meeting held on January 31, 2012, the following policy on dividends from surplus and others.

The Company will apply the cash flow it has generated based on "Challenge 2020 Vision" to investments in 'Enhancing the LNG Value Chain,' which is aimed at new growth, and will simultaneously allocate the results of its management to the shareholders in an appropriate and timely manner.

Specifically, the Company has positioned acquisition of its own shares based on assumption of retirement, in addition to dividends, as a form of its return to the shareholders, and has set the targeted gross distribution propensity (the ratio of the amount of dividends and acquisition of its own shares to consolidated net income) at about 60% for each year until FY2020.

Moreover, by maintaining stable dividends, and comprehensively considering medium- and long-term profit levels, the Company will gently increase its dividends in line with growth.

n FY gross	_	(n FY total dividends) + (n+1 FY acquisition of own shares)
distribution = propensity	-	n FY consolidated net income

8. Basic Policy on Control of a Joint-Stock Corporation

Based on 'Challenge 2020 Vision,' the Company passed at the meeting of its Board of Directors held on January 31, 2012, a resolution on amendment of the 'Basic Policy on the Management Principles and Control of the Tokyo Gas Group' as follows:

The Tokyo Gas Group supplies city gas in a safe and stable manner to roughly ten million accounts of corporate and individual customers mainly in the greater metropolitan Tokyo region, and conducts businesses of extremely high public interest by offering the best possible mixture of various energies including gas, heat and electricity and their added values, and by helping customers lead a comfortable life and build environment-friendly cities. The Group makes it one of its fundamental principles to continue to grow while enjoying a constant trust of its customers and shareholders. On the strength of this management principle and medium- and long-term business strategy, it is the basic management policy of the Company to achieve stable long-term management and steady enhancement of corporate value by simultaneously allocating profits to its customers, shareholders and other stakeholders in a stable and balanced manner. The Company will distribute the financial returns to shareholders based on the 'Policy on Determination of Dividends from Surplus and Others' prescribed separately.

The Company, as a listed company, expects it could be posed by any party attempting to acquire a massive quantity of its shares or making a buyoff proposal, but whether to accept it should ultimately be determined by the intent of the entire body of the Company's shareholders. By looking at their purpose, method and others, however, the Company considers some of these massive share-purchasing attempts could damage its corporate value and joint interests of its customers and shareholders, and would find them to be inappropriate. In making this judgment, the Company would carefully examine impacts the relevant act of purchasing or buyoff proposal might have on the Company's corporate value and joint interests of customers and shareholders on the basis of the relevant purchaser's actual business operations, future business plans, past investment behavior, etc.

The Company considers 'increasing corporate value' is the most effective defensive measure against an act of inappropriate massive share-purchasing.

At this particular time, no specific threat to the Company is being posed by buyoff, and the Company does not currently intend to have any specific predetermined measures (the so-called 'poison pills') in place. However, the Company does intend to constantly watch the conditions of the trading of its shares and will take immediate countermeasures as deemed appropriate if any party is found to be attempting to acquire a massive quantity of its shares.
