

Tokyo Gas Co., Ltd.
March 12, 2011

Measures for the recovery of the gas business in the areas impacted by the Tohoku Pacific Offshore Earthquake

Tokyo Gas Co., Ltd. announced today that it has set up a disaster management headquarter for the recovery of the gas business in Hitachi City, Ibaraki Prefecture, where saw a major damage by the Tohoku Pacific Offshore Earthquake which occurred on March 11, 2011. The company also decided to send 236 members today to the area for the recovery of the gas supply.

The gas business will be fully recovered within 10-14days except in areas where the impact of the earthquake was severe.

[Reference]

1. No. of Gas Supply Interruptions (as of March 12, 2011, AM01:00)

Area	No. of customers	Status of Recovery
Hitachi City, Ibaraki Pref.	30,008	-
Ushiku City, Ibaraki Pref.	471	March 11, PM22:36 fully recovered
Ryugasaki City, Ibaraki Pref.	77	March 11, PM16:20 fully recovered
Yokohama City, Kanagawa Pref.	40	March 11, PM17:20 fully recovered
Total	30,596

Note: There are no supply interruptions in other Tokyo Gas area.

2. No. of Recovered Gas Supplies : 588 customers (as of March 12, 2011, AM02:00)

3. Status of Production Facilities

- City gas productions at the three LNG terminals are as usual.
- The gas leak at the Sodegaura LNG Terminal has been fully restored.
- Hitachi Production Facility is currently not operating due to power outage.