*Tokyo Gas America Ltd., and its affiliated consolidated subsidiaries have adopted Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in the U.S. (U.S. GAAP) in place of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) from the end of FY25/3. Accordingly, the results for FY25/3 Q3 have been restated after the retrospective application of the change in accounting policies.

< Cautionary Statement regarding Forward-looking Statements >

Statements made in this presentation with respect to Tokyo Gas's present plans, forecasts, strategies, and other information herein that are not expressions of historical fact are forward-looking statements about the future performance of the Company. The Company's actual performance may greatly differ from these projections due to critical factors which include general economic conditions in Japan, crude oil prices, the weather, changes in the yen-dollar exchange rate, rapid technological innovations, and the Company's responses to the progress of deregulation.

*1 Current forecast

*2 Profit attributable to owners of parent + Depreciation and amortization

- Segment profit rose, driven by higher Energy solution profits from the change in city gas unit prices due to time lag effect, growth in electric power sales volume, etc., and by an increase in Overseas business profits stemming from the higher sales unit price of US shale gas business.
- Profit attributable to owners of parent increased by 1,327 hundred million yen as a result of reflecting the rise in extraordinary profit due to a foreign currency translation adjustment gain associated with the resolution to wind up Tokyo Gas Australia Pty Ltd. recorded in Q1, gain on divestments of fixed assets including real estate, and recognition of an impairment loss in some domestic renewable energy projects in Q3.
- Segment profits are solidly on track with the fiscal year plan.

Details on
P.20

(unit: 100 million yen)

Ordinary profit

*Simple sum before elimination of intra-company transactions and exclude equity method profit. Includes foreign exchange effect shown separately.

Extraordinary profit/loss +926

Asset recycling +1,179

<Extraordinary profit>

- Gain on a foreign currency translation adjustment +680
- Gain on divestment of fixed assets +482 (including gain on divestment of real estate +368)
- Gain on divestment of investment securities +17

One-time or valuation-related factors -253

<Extraordinary profit>

- Absence of compensation income for damage received in the prior period -20

<Extraordinary loss>

- Absence of loss on valuation of investment securities in the prior period +86
- Impairment loss in a portion of domestic renewable energy business, etc.

- The segment profit forecast is revised upward by 196 hundred million yen from the previous forecast based on higher Overseas business profits stemming from the higher sales unit price of US shale gas business and higher Energy solution profits due to improved gas gross margin.
- Profit attributable to owners of parent remains unchanged despite higher gains on real estate divestments, due to the recognition of extraordinary loss resulting from an impairment loss in some domestic renewable energy projects.

③Segment Overview: Urban Development

- FY26/3 Q3 Results (vs. FY25/3 Q3 Results): Profit declined due to the delay in the reopening of Park Hyatt Tokyo (reopened Dec. 9) and a rise in its renovation costs.
- FY26/3 Forecast (vs. Previous Forecast): Although the segment profit forecast was revised downward to account for a decrease in the number of sale of real estate for sale, the forecast of profit from urban development business was revised upward due to the recording of extraordinary profit from the sale of GINZA gCUBE in Q3.
- We will advance our capital recycling efforts by continuing to sell off real estate for sale in Q4 (to be recorded in segment profit).

■ Change in segment profit

(unit: 100 million yen)

③Segment Overview: Urban Development

- We expect to divest a total of approximately 500 hundred million yen in assets during FY26/3, including the sale of GINZA gCUBE. We also plan to implement capital recycling in excess of 700 hundred million yen during the course of the FY27/3-FY29/3 Medium-term Management Plan as we strive to steadily increase our profits and capital efficiency.
- The schedule for major property development is as indicated in the table below. Development is being advanced to increase the value of the urban development segment and owned properties. After the projects are completed, we will determine the appropriate handling of them in a timely manner, in the light of our capital recycling policy, market conditions, and other factors.
